

A friend tells Us the duo (Nov. 9), who strongly supported Hillary Clinton, "wanted to get away after the election."

SEXY Anniversary Trip

Got that sunshine! Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake escape to the tropics and bum around BY TALIA ERGAS

An eyewitness tells Us the duo spent an hour splashing in the waves.

"Jessica is loving being a mom" to son Silas, says the insider.

The secret to Biel's bod: workouts with Hilary Duff's trainer boyfriend, Jason Walsh!

The couple (in New Orleans Nov. 1) "are best friends," says the source.

Four years into their marriage, Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake are coasting. Despite packed schedules (the actress, 34, is filming 2017's drama Shock and Awe in New Orleans while the singer, 35, is recording new music in their L.A. home base), a source close to the pair tells Us, they maintain "a great relationship." Part of their formula: knowing when to press pause. On November 9, the parents of Silas, 19 months, savored a belated celebration of their October 19 anniversary in the Caribbean. After a casual lunch, the pair strolled to the beach for a dip. "They looked like newlyweds," says an onlooker. "They were extremely playful and laughing. Justin was pretending to grab her butt!" The duo, together since 2007, don't shy away from PDA. When Timberlake visited Biel on her set November 1, he immediately stole a kiss and whisked her away to her trailer. After all, as he recently told Extra's Mario Lopez, they're "having a lot of fun practicing" for a second child! US
